5. PTAC delegates' report:

6. Principal's report:

The growth of the school: current enrollment is 841 students. We got 2.6 more staff to support the growth. We absorbed the additional students well. Parent conferences are coming. End of the first quarter is 2 weeks away. Concerts will be in November at Howard High.

November fundraising event: The school is interested in creating a Century room. More information will be provided during the November PTA meeting.

A group of students want to support Food on the 15th. PTA is also organizing a fund raising event. We may be able to combine the two events.

Parent question: Late email says the student was absent. Parent got really nervous. The email was automatically generated by Synergy. We will forward the problem to central office.

National education week is November 14th to 18th. Wednesday will be the open house.
